Commission Gives Tax Relief To Troubled County Firm

The Coffee County Commission met in regular session on Tuesday, May 26, at the courthouse in Enterprise, and voted unanimously to provide support to an Enterprise factory in its efforts to reopen.

The factory - Bama Mills - (Fabrics-America), closed recently, but the City of Enterprise reviewed the possibilities of its reopening and passed a resolution pledging support and assistance available through its legislative power, in the re-establishment of the factory. The city also requested the County Commission lend support to the effort and grant tax-exempt status to the company for a minimum of five years.

The commission discussed the request at a meeting on May 11, but Commissioner Rex Boutwell questioned the legality of the request and asked County Attorney Warren Rowe to investigate the matter. Rowe reported since the plant was now closed, a reopening would constitute a new industry and tax-exempt status would be granted.

Members of the Enterprise City Council and local investors hoping to reopen the plant met with the commission last week and stated the company would be a home-operated industry and would provide job stability to over 400 families.

At Tuesday's meeting the commission passed a resolution lending all support available under current statutes and agreed to grant tax-exempt status for a period of five years.

Also at Tuesday's meeting, County Attorney Rowe informed the commission that two new circuit judges had been appointed to hear cases involving the county. Circuit Judge William Gordon has been appointed to rule on a petition seeking declaratory judgment on the legality of a 1-cent sales tax which will be used to finance construction of a new jail. Attorney Rowe has declared the attorney general's opinion is wrong, and filed for declaratory judgment which would result in a final decision on the legality of the tax.

Judge Jack Wallace has been named to hear a suit brought against the county by Dothan architect Joseph Donofrio. Donofrio declares he has a binding contract with the county for architectural work on a 40-prisoner jail to be constructed in the county. The commission decided that Donofrio's contract was on an old project to build a jail in Elba, and when the project was dropped the contract became void. In his suit, Donofrio is asking for $150,000 or 6 percent of construction costs in building a jail.

Kinston Man Arrested For Stabbing Wife

A Kinston man was arrested and placed in the Coffee County Jail last week after being charged with first degree assault in connection with the stabbing of his wife.

Charles Hillard, 62, is accused of stabbing his wife, Gladys Hillard, in the chest as she was attempting to help him in their home following a brief argument.

She was taken to Mizell Memorial Hospital in Opp, while her husband is out of jail after posting $1,000 bond.

Local authorities were called to the scene after the signature was recognized as a forgery.

Sentencing Of Cake Postponed

The sentencing of Robert Cake, an Alexander City man convicted of second degree arson of an Elba business, has been delayed until 9 a.m. Monday at the Coffee County Courthouse in Elba.

Cake was scheduled to be sentenced last Monday, but it was delayed by Circuit Court Judge Terry Butts.

Cake pled guilty to setting fire to the Frank Ashe Ford building in Elba last May. A second degree arson conviction carries a possible one to ten years prison sentence.

Frank Ashe, the owner of the dealership, was sentenced to 10 years in prison last month after being found guilty of plotting the fire. His case is currently being appealed.

Edna M. Douglas, 57, drowned Sunday afternoon while on a swimming outing at Pea River, north of Elba. She had reportedly gone to the swimming and picnic area known as Harper's Bottom with a cousin. Ms. Douglas lived on Railroad Street in New Brockton. Witnesses told Coroner Danny Bradley that the victim was playing around in the water one minute and when they looked around a few minutes later, she was floating downstream and did not respond to their calls. She was pulled out of the water several hundred yards downstream by other swimmers who responded to the information that a woman's body was floating in the river. Bradley ruled the victim died from drowning, however, he took a blood sample for routine analysis.

Brainstorms

By FERRIN COX

The public criticism of state mental health officials by Montgomery District Attorney Jimmy Evans is shared by a growing number of Alabama citizens in this area. Evans pointed out that a man charged with his second unprovoked killing had just been released from an Alabama mental institution over the objections of prosecutors and judges. This was apparently not a freak happening as the man has been admitted at least eleven times in eleven years. The tragic incident shows a crying need for something in our system to prevent the return to society by those who beat long jail terms or the hangman by pleading insanity. Until medical experts discover ways to control problems such as "schizophrenic episodes" (where people act insane at one time but are completely normal later), we must shield the innocent majority from the dangers of these mentally disturbed people who continue to commit crimes... and continue to be released as cured.

Well, several months ago we received a bill for a 1-cent underpayment in a state tax account. The total bill for the "big" under payment was $5.26 and we finally paid it two months later after much fussing. Now we have another letter from the same department - we felt the hair on our neck bristling when we recognized the envelope. After opening the notice we found, however, that we now have a credit balance. We only hope they pay us just half the interest we were charged for the 1-cent underpayment!

Last Saturday ye ole editor went on a fishing trip with both sons (including our five-year-old who feels he has graduated from bank fishing to weekend fishing trips on the boat). We left home long before day and had the boat in the water by daylight. Of course, as soon as we started fishing, five-year-old Eric was ready for his breakfast, and at 8:30 a.m. he asked in a very disturbed voice if we were ever going to eat our lunch. Here I was still happy with only my 3 a.m. cup of coffee, and he was convinced he had fished and completely missed the noon meal. Well, rather than try to convince him of the time, we just broke out the food and fed him until he announced that one of the viennas was stuck in his throat!

We talked last week with the construction supervisor for the new Hardees scheduled for Elba, and he said construction should be underway within a couple of weeks (about June 9) with opening set in the early fall. He promised a first-class operation, with numerous job opportunities for local folks. At present no manager has been announced for the local facility and therefore no hiring is taking place, but that should take place about six weeks before opening, we were told. This information puts to rest the unfounded rumor that the firm had decided not to build in Elba, even after purchasing the property.

While on the subject of eating facilities we can touch a bit on the recurring stories of stakeholders looking at Elba. We have contacted officials of two of those reportedly looking at Elba and have gotten negative answers. Both said they were interested in expanding but the community lacked the population needed to support the specialty house. One we talked with was the man who actually makes the decision for his company, and he cited need for at least a 40,000 trade area needed to justify the expensive construction.

Interest rates continue to climb with many experts now predicting the rates will climb higher than the records of several months ago. We don't have any cash to salt away on those high money market rates, and hope we can avoid borrowing any at the high rates currently being charged. Then that has it saved - we salute, and then who can afford the high interest on loans we also salute - us, well, we will just go fishing.

We saw an interesting figure this week. Someone had counted up all the lawyers in America and there is almost half a million. This is up over a hundred percent from the 1950's and the survey showed the tendency to file lawsuits had increased according to Howard Brown, a lawyer in the same as the chicken and the egg... did the lawyers cause the lawsuits or did the lawsuits entice folks to practice law.

We are not at all happy with the Alabama legislature this year. They did a lot of wheel-spinning and very little work. We ain't sure just where the problem is but there sure is a big one up there.

When we look at the galaxy Andromeda, we are seeing light that left it before the first men appeared on Earth.

Office supply stores warned of bogus sales

Bogus office supply houses continue to cause problems for businesses of all types - from churches to government offices - Attorney General Charles A. Graddick said recently.

"The details may vary, but each of these bogus suppliers follows a basic pattern," Graddick said.

"The business receives a call from someone saying he or she represents a supply house which has an over-supply of copier fluids, paper or even typewriter ribbon. The business is offered a substantial discount if it orders right away. The caller usually says the supplies are of a specific brand, which normally is used in the business's machines."

"We do not know how the callers know what machines these businesses use," Graddick said. "Often they even ask to talk to the person who normally orders supplies by name. Some businesses, realizing what has happened, have refused the shipments. But many accept them and are stuck with an unusually large bill, as well as products which may not be compatible with their equipment," Graddick said.

Lewis To Be In JCOC

G. Marvin Lewis Jr., a partner in the Coca-Cola Bottling Company of Dothan, has been invited to participate in the Forty-sixth Joint Civilian Orientation Conference (JCOC 46) which will open June 7 in Washington, D.C. He is believed to be the first resident of the Wiregrass to participate in the JCOC.

Lewis is president of the Jenner Corporation in Dothan, and the Dothan Soft Drink Advertising Committee. He is married to the former Jean Coleman Brock of Elba; they have two sons - George M. Lewis III of Montgomery, and William Brock Lewis of Birmingham.

The conference will include a tour of the Pentagon in Washington, and briefings by Defense Department officials, meetings with service chiefs, mission briefings and discussions. Travel to four military installations - Eglin AFB, the Army's Infantry School at Ft. Benning, the Marine Corps LeJeune, and Norfolk Naval Base - has been planned also.

The purpose of this conference, which began in 1948, is to give a diverse group of civilians an opportunity to observe their Armed Forces first hand. Through observation and open exchanges with members of the services and their military and civilian leaders, conferees should be able to judge for themselves the capabilities and readiness of the Armed Forces.

MONUMENT TO FEAR

On the outskirts of San Jose, California, a rambling mansion built as a monument to fear and superstition. Known as the Winchester House, the weird structure was started when a spiritualist medium told its owner she would never die as long as she continued building. But, the medium said, as soon as the hammering stopped, or the sound of the sawing ceased, death would surely come. Having just lost her daughter and husband, Mrs. Winchester began building and never stopped until her death in 1928.

During 38 years she added more than 130 rooms, remodeled several times, and rebuilt after the 1906 earthquake. Today a grotesque structure looms on the San Jose skyline. In the Mystery House, there are stairs that lead nowhere, doors that open into blank walls, secret passages and steps only 2 inches high. Thousands tour the home annually to view the strange sights and learn about the torments of that lonely, fear-filled woman.

Fear drives people to do strange things. Some try to drown their fears in self-pollution by following the motto, "Eat, drink and be merry." Others attempt to drown their torments with drug-stained needles or cheap wine. A few absorb themselves in their work or possessions to quell nagging fears.

Let me despair - there is an answer. The Bible gives us Paul's message to young Timothy, "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear."

VIEWS FROM THE PRESSBOX

By Ricky Mularz
Sports Editor

I am not much of a major league baseball fan, but I will admit that on Saturday I did sit in front of the TV for over two hours watching the Los Angeles Dodgers play the Cincinnati Reds. I hate the Reds and don't exactly like the Dodgers, so I didn't care who won. Why did I watch it? I wanted to see the fabulous Fernando Valenzuela pitch! I had read in Sports Illustrated last week all about the 20-year-old Mexican superstar, and I wanted to see him pitch a no-hitter, or at least a 2- or 3-hitter. Well, he didn't pitch a no-hitter, and he didn't even last to chalk up the win. He is a good pitcher and I'm sure Saturday wasn't one of his better days, but I am also certain I won't spend another Saturday watching baseball on the tube!

During the baseball game the main concern of the announcers seemed to be the possibility of the players strike. I made it clear several weeks ago how I felt about a baseball strike, and I still feel the same way. How can you support the players when their minimum yearly salary is $42,000, and some make as much as $2 million a year. Let them strike - we'll watch softball!

Former Coffee Springs Coach Wayne Purvis just keeps on bouncing back. The very vocal coach has had some trouble in recent years because of his temper, but he always survives and goes on coaching. He got the axe at Coffee Springs during last basketball season, and since it was a 1A school, most people thought he'd finally reached the end. Wrong! Coach Purvis has been named as the new basketball coach at Marianna, Florida, a 3A school. Add to that the fact that Marianna won the 1980 state championship, and you'll have to agree that Purvis is far from dead. Good luck, Coach - even if you never did learn to pronounce my name!

The men's softball league is rolling along and The Little Beaver-people's Bank is threatening to make a shambles of the league. The team is the only undefeated team in the league, and I honestly don't think they'll lose in the opening round. They could lose in the second round when the league is divided, but they shouldn't have any trouble winning the league championship. The battle for second place should be between Hickman, Nasco, Carter Brothers and Cash Trailers, and it should be a real toss-up!

Over in the women's league, Foxfire Sporting Goods club is rate as the team to beat. Foxfire has a solid club, both at bat and in the field, and their losses should come few and far between. The runner-up spot is anybody's guess!

I mentioned last week that both Dale County and Geneva would drop 1A in 1982, but I forgot to tell you how our area would line up. It will include Andalusia, Ashford, Daleville, Elba, Troy, Opp and Brundidge. Both Daleville and Brundidge will be new area foes, but it makes little difference because our area will still be as strong as ever. When you take a look at Area 4, you'll realize just how strong our area is. When you get past Eufrasia (a powerhouse every year), all you've got are Abbeville, Beaufort, Union Springs, Chavala and Smith Station. Tell me we aren't in a strong area!

The Deep South Racking Horse Club will hold its annual show on Saturday and this year's event should be the best ever. World class horses will be entered in many classes, making it a show you won't want to miss. It's a shame the show has to use the field at the recreation center, but they've promised to repair any damages to the ballfield, and that's all they can do. By the way, show officials have also promised to keep everyone off the Dixie Youth field, which means the field should be protected, and it's good to know the horse show officials agree. Thanks!

Let's see - yep, there are only 9 days left before I join the ranks of the married men. How does that song go? . . .

Ken Stabler Camp Set For June

The seventh annual Ken Stabler-Marion Military Institute Football Camp will be held June 21-27, 1981, for boys between the ages of 8-18. Expert instruction in this highly popular non-contact camp will be given in all phases of football - running, passing, receiving, punting, place-kicking, blocking and tackling (form only), agility and quickness. Other activities will include weight training, swimming, tennis, golf and volleyball. Stabler, a Maxwell Award winner 1977 Hickok Professional Athlete of the Year winner, and former MVP of National Football League and now the talented quarterback of the Houston Oilers, will be on hand to personally direct and perform coaching duties throughout each practice session. Commenting on his camp, Stabler stated, "Football has meant a lot to me and I look forward each year to going to MMI for a week of sharing (along with the other pros) special skills with the boys attending the camp. We are very proud of the fact there are some 25-35 boys now participating in college football who have attended our camp in the past. I feel this is a tribute to the excellent instruction the campers have received from our excellent staff."

"We know this year's staff is one of the finest that can be found anywhere. In addition to our high school and professional staff, we are proud to have Steadman Shealy back for the second year, along with Major Ogilvie. The instructions the campers will receive, both on and off the field, cannot be matched anywhere."

The camp has the capacity for feeding and housing 300 campers, and with the preliminary response from Alabama throughout the United States it indicates the camp will be filled at an early date. Campers are accepted on a first come-first serve basis.

This camp meets all the AHSAA-APSA requirements, and is billed as "The Camp for the Pros of Tomorrow," with each participant having personalized instruction from the "Pros of Today." Pro football players included on this summer's list of instructors include Russell Erlebrun, Tom Neville, Ken Burroughs, Dennis Haskins, Mickey Marvin, Glenn Blackwood and Marty Lyons.

A silver tray will be presented to the winners of each class along with ribbons and prize money for places 1-5. Winner of the Championship class will receive a silver tray, ribbon, Charles P. Hayes Memorial trophy, a floral horseshoe and prize money. Total prize money will be $1,870.

Admission will be refunded to exhibitors. Admission is $2.00 adults, $1.00 students, and free for children under 6. There are a limited number of stalls for anyone needing overnight accommodations.

New Hope Junior High School honored its student-athletes recently with an Awards Banquet and a dance. Honored were members of the basketball team, girls' softball team and cheerleaders.

Receiving outstanding achievement awards in basketball were: Terry Hayes - Most Valuable Player; Willie Taylor - Top Rebounder; Greg Flowers - Most Improved; and Terry Newson - Byron Foley Memorial Coach. Ken English stated, "We feel we had a successful year. Our 12-8 record is not impressive at all when you consider the competition we played, it seems to gain a little more respect. We only returned one starter, but won some games we weren't supposed to and lost five games by a total of only 11 points. We'll have only one starter back next year, and it will definitely be another rebuilding season. However, our B team upset Enterprise and had some people who helped us. I believe we will be able to post a respectable record."

White Sox & Dodgers

Remain Tied For 1st

The Elba Babe Ruth Baseball League completed its second night of action last Tuesday night with the White Sox and the Dodgers winning, to remain unbeaten with identical 2-0 records. Following the leaders with 0-2 slates are the A's and the Reds.

White Sox 5
Reds 2
Rhett McCollough pitched a 2-hitter and fanned 8 batters to lead the White Sox to an exciting 5-2 victory over the Reds. The Reds scored in the second inning when Chip Kelley singled and scored on a Phillips error when Chris Moore reached on an error. Their lead held up until the sixth inning, when the Sox plated 4 runs on only 1 hit. Floyd Coleman and Terrell Hammond both walked to open the inning, and both reached home on a single by Bryan Payne. Tommy Hot and Rex Messick walked to lead the bases, and Kevin Kelley reached on an error to force in another run and put the Sox on top 3-2. Consecutive walks to Rhett McCollough and Bryan Payne forced in two runs as the White Sox moved ahead for good at 5-2.

Rhett McCollough, Art Brunson, Floyd Coleman and Bryan Payne all got 2 hits to pace the Sox batters, while Mick Phillips and Chip Kelley got the only 2 hits for the Reds.

Dodgers 12
A's 9
Tim Williamson slugged a run homer to spark a 12-9 victory over the A's. Williamson scored on a hit by Terry Ware to increase their lead to 12-8 and put the game out of reach. Jerry Siler doubled and scored in the final inning for the A's, but it was too little too late as the Dodgers had the win 12-9.

Tim Williamson and Ervin Gunnels had 2 hits apiece to lead the Dodgers while Terry Ware, Whitfield and Napoleon Tillis all added 1 hit. Chris Winters, Jerry Siler, Scotty Barnes, John Hudson and Scotty Sullivan all got 1 hit for the A's. Dwayne Fleming came in to pitch for the Dodgers in the third inning when his team trailed 8-3 and shut down the A's on 1 hit and fanned 8 batters to spark his team to the win.

Cubs Record Slips To 4-6

The Pin Hook Cubs have hit a tailspin in recent weeks, losing three straight games, and now own a 4-6 record. The Cubs' last win came over Dozier 13-5, in Dozier, while the losing streak started at Pin Hook field with an 11-4 loss to the Brantley Hawks.

Last Saturday the Cubs hosted the Peterman All-Stars and dropped a narrow 7-6 decision. The difference in the game was a pair of home runs hit by the same all-star player, one being a 2-run shot and the other a 3-run blast.

Sunday the Cubs traveled to Mt. Zion and were blasted 16-4. A towering home run by Robert Hightower gave the Cubs an early 4-1 lead, but Mt. Zion cut the lead to 4-3 midway through the game and broke loose for 13 runs in the sixth inning to put the game on ice.

FISHIN' TIPS

from...Tom Mann

FROM THE MAIL BAG

HEY TOMMY: "I know you catch a heap of fish so you must have cleaned a heap of fish. How can I keep from nicking my hands on fish fins and the fish knife?"

TENDERHAND: Usually it is the left hand that gets most of the nicks because it holds the fish. Try wearing a light canvas glove and I think your problem is solved.

MISTER TOM: "I catch a lot of these new striped, a dandy fish, but my wife says they taste strong, fishy. Got any suggestions I ain't gonna quit fishin'?"

HELLO HOPEY: You betcha. Most of the fishy taste in a striped bass comes from the skin. So, just fillet the meat, skive off the skin, dip in buttermilk and flour, fry a yummy golden brown... and holler across the holler, I'll come runnin'.

DEAR TOM MANN: "Just what is the value of putting scents like strawberry, lemon, and the like, on plastic worms. Do they smell good to a bass?"

KAINTUCKY KERNEL: Well, no one really knows but one guess is they obliterate the human scent which is repulsive to all wild creatures. My grandfather used anise oil and believed it helped him catch more fish. He got off on a vanilla kick one time but grandma whopped him with a broom and put a stop to that.

HOWDY TOM: "I just happen to think that wire weed guards on single hooks spook wary fish. Is there any other way to make a hook 'veedless'?"

UNHAPPY HOOKER: HELLO UNHAP: Well, yes, you can get some small rubber bands at the five and dime store. Loop one through the eye of the single hook and snap the other end under the barb. This works surprisingly well and gives a soft feel when a fish mouths it.

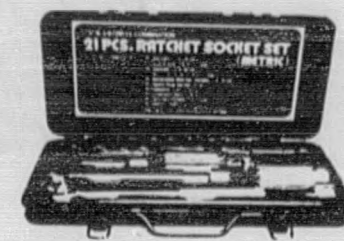

HEY TELL: "I know where crappies hang out and I've tried all kinds of artificial lures but the only thing I can get them to take is minnows. Am I just dumb?"

SKUNKED: HOWDY SKUNKED: No, but crappies can seem mighty smart. Chances are you are moving your lures too fast. Try reeling a 1/16 ounce white swimmer, grab so slowly you catch yourself dozing off between turns of the reel handle. It works!

DEAR TOM: "I know every-body says crickets are the best bluegill bait, but I get only one bluegill for every ten crickets. Am I doing something wrong?"

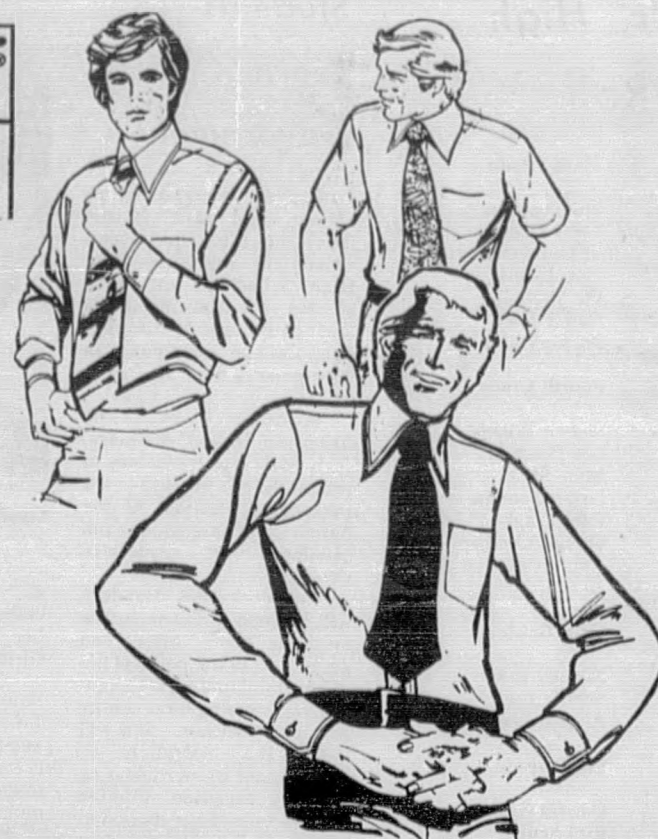

AGGRAVATED: HELLO AG: Chances are you're just hooking the cricket through the middle and a bluegill just nicks it off the hook. Try using a long-shank No. 8 hook and first run it through the cricket's breastplate, then bury it in the seat of his pants. It's a dirty trick to play on a cricket but it works!

Evergreen Cemetery Perpetual Care

Box 450
Elba, Alabama 36323

March 1, 1981

Dear Friends of Elba:

Since the first letter was mailed in January, 1974, requesting you to contribute to a trust fund designed to provide perpetual care for loved ones buried in Evergreen Cemetery in Elba, we have raised approximately $52,000.00. These monies were placed in a trust fund at FIRST ALABAMA BANK of Montgomery which has now grown to over $90,000.

Beginning immediately we are putting on a drive to reach our goal of $100,000.00 after which we plan to start perpetual care. The first phase will be to hire a full-time caretaker and provide him with the necessary tools and chemicals to maintain both old and new cemeteries. With your help and that of others we feel that we can reach phase one by mid-year.

We urge you to send your tax-free donation as early as you can and also if you have friends with loved ones in Evergreen suggest that they send a donation also. EVERGREEN CEMETERY PERPETUAL CARE FUND was approved as a tax-exempt organization by Internal Revenue Service letter dated March 31, 1972. A copy can be supplied by, however, you only need to identify your donation with Employer's Identification No. 63-6001247.

After phase one is in operation we plan to enter phase two which will be a long range beautification project. Funds for this will come from the sale of lots, memorials and other donations. The paving of streets will have a high priority in this phase. Your suggestions for improvements will certainly be appreciated. Include them as you send your check to:

Students To Learn Of Government

Candace Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Berry of Elba, has been chosen to represent Elba High School at the 1981 session of Alabama Girls State to be held at Huntingdon College campus in Montgomery May 31 - June 6.

Sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, Girls State is a laboratory of practical government - a personal application of the duties, responsibilities and privileges of American citizenship.

For one week Candace will become a citizen in the mythical state, taking an active part in the political life of her community; campaigning and electing city, county and state officials. She will learn the operation of government by participating in party caucuses, through the election of governor and state officials. Knowledgeable speakers on the various levels of state, county and city government will enlighten the young women of their responsibilities.

Candace plans to campaign for the office of governor. She will speak to her sponsoring organization, American Legion Culver Post 42, in Elba, and to other clubs upon invitation about her experiences while at Girls State.

Candace is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.C. Berry, Mrs. Callie Carr and the late Hollis Carr. She is actively involved in the following school and community organizations:

First Baptist Church, youth choir and ensemble, Mu Alpha Theta, French Club, Science Club, marching band, Junior Club, Senior Girl Scout Troop 300, Beta Club, Gold Key 4-H Honor fraternity, Coffee County Voice of Democracy winner, district public 4-H speaking winner.

Stanley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Moore of Elba and the grandson of Mrs. Hill Thomas of Elba and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Moore of Opp, Alabama.

He is a member of the Beta Club, Mu Alpha Theta, Prep Bowl and Youth for Christ. He is a member of Bethany Baptist Church.
